"The Free Gaza Movement has succeeded in breaking the siege of Gaza ... From the groundbreaking work of Gandhi and King to the ongoing example of the Free Gaza Movement, we can discern the transforming power of nonviolence at a crossroads in our history."

"[The Free Gaza Movement carries] with you the hopes and wishes of many people around the world ... The Siege of Gaza is a shameful act of collective punishment."

*Mairead Maguire, Nobel Peace Prize
Laureate & passenger on Free
Gaza's 2nd boat trip in Oct. 2008*

"We recognize that our boats are humble, but what we've accomplished is to show that average people from around the world can mobilize to create change."

*Huwaida Arraf, J.D.
Free Gaza Organizer & Palestinian
Human Rights Activist*

On August 23 2008, 44 ordinary people from 17 different countries sailed to Gaza on two small wooden boats, the FREE GAZA and the LIBERTY. We did what our governments would not do - we broke the Siege of Gaza. For the first time in over 40 years, international ships docked at Gaza Port. For the first time in over 60 years, Palestinians freely entered and exited their own country. Please help support this important work.

Since August 2008, the Free Gaza Movement has organized many further siege-breaking voyages to Gaza. We will go to Gaza again and again and again, until the Israeli siege is shattered once and for all, and the people of Gaza have free access to the rest of the world.

"This mission sent an open invitation to the human rights and international community to come to Gaza."

*Dr. Mona El-Farra
Director of the Red Crescent Society,
Gaza, and International Campaign
Against the Siege*

We began this campaign in 2006 on hope alone. Many thought it couldn't be done. We did it. We broke the siege. Now we need your help to keep going. Please give generously and help end the Siege of Gaza forever!
